CNBC Saturday, November 13, 2016 12:00 AM Practical: Some things you may not know about your taxes | CNBC Many things happen in the year that we do not even consider to be part of that year, like tax day. But don't panic " some of these can actually save you money.1. Don't pay too much in taxes Don't apply for automatic withdrawals from your bank account if they're going to take a percentage from your account to pay for income tax. You can do your taxes by filing early if you don't owe too much, and that way you get to keep the amount in your account instead of a tax taking a percentage of it. Another tax saving tip is to reduce the amount you give to charity. It's often beneficial to give smaller amounts to certain charities each year rather than giving the same amount you gave last year. Tax on money you give away to charity is tax deductible.
